INSTRUCTIONS

1. Individual sureties on bonds executed in connection with Government contracts must complete and submit this form with the bond. (See 48 CFR 28.203, 53.228(e).) The surety must have the completed form notarized.
2. No corporation, partnership, or other unincorporated association or firm, as such, is acceptable as individual surety. Likewise, members of a partnership are not acceptable as sureties on bonds the partnership or an association, or any co-partner or member thereof, is the principal obligor. However, stockholders of corporate principals are acceptable provided (a) their qualifications are independent of their stockholdings or financial interest therein, and (b) that the fact is expressed in the affidavit justification. An individual surety will not include any financial interest in assets connected with the principal on the bond that this affidavit supports.
3. United States citizenship is a requirement for individual sureties for contracts and bonds when a contract is awarded in the United States. However, when the Contracting Officer is located in an outlying area or a foreign country, the individual surety is only required to be a permanent resident of that area or country in which the contracting officer is located.
4. All signatures of the affidavit submitted must be originals. Affidavits bearing reproduced signatures are not acceptable. An authorized person must sign the bond. Any person signing in a representative capacity (e.g., an attorney-in-fact) must furnish evidence of authority if that representative is not a member of a firm, partnership, or joint venture, or an officer of the corporation involved.

RELEASE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY FROM ESCROW

Whereas JAMES COPPEDGE, of B/C # 154-44-328005, by a bond (Name) (Place of Residence) for the performance of U.S. Government Contract Number 2201342201, became a surety for the complete and successful performance of said contract, and Whereas said surety has placed certain personal property in escrow in Account Number CASE No. 23-2883 on deposit at United States District Court for the Eastern District of PA (Name of Financial Institution)

located at 601 MARKET STREET, PHILADELPHIA, PA 19106, and (Address of Financial Institution)

Whereas I, james coppedge family of coppedge, being a duly authorized representative of the United States government as a warranted contracting officer, have determined that retention in escrow of the following property is no longer required to ensure further performance of the said Government contract or satisfaction of claims arising therefrom:

see Standard Form 28 AFFIDAVIT OF INDIVIDUAL SURETY (attached)

Whereas the surety remains liable to the United States Government for the continued performance of the said Government contract and satisfaction of claims pertaining thereto.

Now, therefore, this agreement witnesseth that the Government hereby releases from escrow the property listed above, and directs the custodian of the aforementioned escrow account to deliver the listed property to the surety. If the listed property comprises the whole of the property placed in escrow in the aforementioned escrow account, the Government further directs the custodian to close the account and to return all property therein to the surety, along with any interest accruing which remains after the deduction of any fees lawfully owed to

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE THIRD CIRCUIT

No. 23-2883

Coppedge v. City of Philadelphia

To: Clerk

- 1) Appellant's Letter and Attached Documents Titled "Original Issue Discount," "Acquisition or Abandonment of Secured Property," "Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns," and "Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions," received on March 20, 2024

The foregoing letter and documents have been docketed in this appeal but no further action will be taken on them. This appeal was dismissed on January 29, 2024, because the appellant did not pay the required fees or file a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. If the appellant believes this appeal should be reopened, he must file a formal motion in this Court seeking that relief. "A motion must state with particularity the grounds for the motion, the relief sought, and the legal argument necessary to support it." See Fed. R. App. P. 27(a)(2)(A). When filing a motion to reopen, the appellant should also either (1) pay the required fees to the district court or (2) file a motion asking to proceed in forma pauperis.

For the Court,

s/ Patricia S. Dodszuweit
Clerk

Dated: March 25, 2024

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

You Can Discharge Almost Any Debt with Proper Use of the UCC – Strawmineus Homo - The Strawman Cometh

You Can Discharge Almost Any Debt with Proper Use of the UCC

You can discharge Secured Loans, Credit Card Debt, Student Loans, Auto Loans, Assessments, Citations, Debts, Demands, Fines, Penalties, Tax Liens and Judgments.

Debt Discharge and "Accepted for Value" is based on understanding how you've been misled and learning what to do about it.

You just have to know How to Do It!

The History of How We Were Put Into the "Commerce Game"

On April 5, 1933, then President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, under Executive Order, issued April 5, 1933, declared: "All persons are required to deliver on or before May 1, 1933 all Gold Coin, Gold Bullion, and Gold Certificates now owned by them to a Federal Reserve Bank, branch or agency, or to any member bank of the Federal Reserve System."

James A. Farley, Postmaster General at that time, required each postmaster in the country to post a copy of the Executive Order in a conspicuous place within each branch of the Post Office. On the bottom of the posting was the following:

Criminal Penalties for Violation of Executive Order

$10,000 fine or 10 years imprisonment, or both, as provided in Section 9 of the order.

Section 9 of the order reads as follows:

"Whosoever willfully violates any provisions of this Executive Order or of these regulations or of any rule, regulation or license issued thereunder may be fined not more than $10,000, or if a natural person, may be imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both; and any officer, director or agency of any corporation who knowingly participates in any such violation may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both."

NOTE: Stated within a written document received September 17, 1997, from the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Legal Counsel, Office of the Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Richard L. Shiffin, in response to a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), was the following:

"A fact that is frequently overlooked is that Executive Orders and proclamations of the President normally have no direct effect upon private persons or their property, and
